A FRENCH CLASSIC WITH FRENCH INSPIRED WINE PAIRING

The Croque Monsieur - a classic French café toasted sandwich of ham, cheese and béchamel - is the sort of comforting, wine-friendly dish that emerged as European traditions helped shape Australia's early wine culture. We're pairing this golden indulgence with five V&A Lane wines from Wynns Coonawarra Estate. The richness of melted cheese and savoury ham beautifully complements the structure of these reds, continuing a tradition of great food and wine that began when John Riddoch first planted vines on Coonawarra's Terra Rossa soils.
